

EMPLOYMENT BASED ON ECONOMIC HARDSHIP FOR F-1 STUDENTS

DEFINITION: off-campus employment authorization based upon severe economic hardship caused by unforeseen circumstances beyond the student's control is a special government-granted authorization. Examples of situations when students may request this authorization from the US Citizenship and Immigration Service (USCIS) include, but are not limited to: substantial fluctuations in value of currency, unusual increases in tuition/living costs, economic fallout from local or global natural disasters or events, unexpected changes in the financial conditions of the student's source of support, medical bills, or unexpected expenses.

ELIGIBILITY:

1. Student must have been in F1 status for one full academic year
2. Student must be in good academic standing and pursuing a full course of study
3. Student has demonstrated that employment will not interfere with full-time study
4. Student has demonstrated that the employment is necessary as per above definition
5. Student has demonstrated that on-campus employment is unavailable or is not sufficient to meet the needs that have arisen due to the unforeseen circumstances.

PROCEDURE:

1. Write a letter explaining and detailing your circumstances (see reverse for sample).
2. Complete Form I-765 www.uscis.gov/portal/site/uscis (go to 'immigration forms' then scroll down to I-765) and use code (c)(3)(iii) for Item 27, Eligibility Category. You cannot file this online.
3. Have 2 passport-style photographs taken (see guidelines here). Write your name and I-94 # on the back of each photo.
4. Make a copy of your I-94 record, unofficial transcript, photo page of passport, visa page of passport, and copies of all previous I-20s.
5. Write a personal check or get a money order for $410, made payable to US Department of Homeland Security OR request a fee waiver by completing Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver and submitting supporting documents.
6. For electronic notification that your documents have been received, complete Form G-1145 located at www.uscis.gov/portal/site/uscis click 'forms' and scroll down. Print and clip to the first page of the application.
7. Scan your completed application (including everything but the photos and your fee payment) and email to intlssso@unc.edu with the subject header "Economic Hardship Application".

A counselor will review your submission, then request changes or recommend the off-campus employment by issuing you a new I-20. After you have received the hardship employment-recommended I-20, proceed to Step 8.

8. Mail above documents and copy of new I-20 to:
